

ACQUE & TERME

ACQUE&TERME - Hotel

INFORMATION

Hotel ACQUE & TERME is a few steps from the Acqui Terme spa complex. The hotel is equipped with all necessary amenities for a comfortable vacation in Piedmont, a region famous for its cuisine and wine. A few steps from here opens the UNESCO World Heritage area because of the charming vineyard landscapes. Thermal waters that naturally flow underground have been appreciated by the Romans, who during the Empire made Acqui one of the most important thermal and commercial centers in northern Italy. The hotel is located about fifty meters from Lago delle Sorgenti, the city's most advanced and largest spa complex. It is located on the national road to Genoa, a short distance from the Savona and Alessandria stations and a few hundred meters from the commercial center of Acqui.

The hotel is on two floors except the ground floor.

On the ground floor at the entrance to the hotel there is a large hall with everything that is necessary so that while waiting for accommodation the guest can stop for a moment with the possibility of reading or taking notes with Wi-Fi.

In the reception room with bar, the guest can receive the first information about the room reserved.

The large and bright dining room, where breakfast is served, can accommodate about fifty people. There is also the possibility of organizing conferences, business and club meetings.

Consisting of 14 bedrooms and a room for disabled people, the hotel offers clients bed and breakfast accommodation in various variants.
